

Wyoming Society of Radiologic Technologists

Bylaws

ARTICLE I Name and Affiliation

The name of the organization shall be the Wyoming Society of Radiologic Technologists, hereinafter referred to as the Society, which is an affiliate of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists.

ARTICLE II Organization

Section 1. Purpose

The purpose of the Society shall be to advance the professions of medical radiation therapies and imaging specialties, to assist in establishing and maintaining high standards of education, continuing education, and to enhance the quality of patient care.

Section 2. Mission Statement

The Wyoming Society of Radiologic Technologists exists as the professional organization of radiologic technologists in the state of Wyoming. We strive to elevate the status of our profession by providing educational opportunities for our members as well as non-members, advocacy for our membership as well as our profession, and promotion of quality in the science and practice of radiologic technology.

Section 3. Policy

- A. The Society is committed to equal opportunity and nondiscrimination in all programs and activities. No one will be denied opportunities or benefits on the basis of age, sex, color, race, creed, national origin, religious persuasion, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, military status, political belief or disability.
- B. The name of the Society or any member of its Board of Directors, in their official capacities, shall not be used in connection with a commercial company for other than the regular functions of the Society.

Section 4. Functions

- A. To provide a forum to transact Society business.
- B. To disseminate information pertinent to professional growth.
- C. To promote high standards of education.
- D. To encourage scientific research.
- E. To encourage quality patient care.
- F. To establish and promote policies relevant to the profession.
- G. To establish membership eligibility and define membership categories.
- H. To cooperate with external organizations or agencies whose policies are not in conflict with those of the Society, as may be necessary to maintain continued progress and growth of the Society.
- I. To facilitate a forum for communication between other healthcare professional agencies.

Section 5. Definitions

- A. “Radiologic Technologist” shall be the term used to define an individual who is certified and registered by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) or an equivalent agency (e.g. American Registry of Diagnostic Medical Sonographers (ARDMS), Nuclear Medicine Technologist Certification Board (NMTCB)) as a Radiographer, Nuclear Medicine Technologist, Radiation Therapist, Sonographer and those practicing in other specialty areas such as Computed Tomography, Cardiovascular Interventional Technology, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Mammography, Quality Management, etc. who have met minimum requirements for a general license as prescribed by law in the state of Wyoming.
- B. "Radiologic Technician" shall mean a person who has or has not received formal training in the application of ionizing radiation, but who has met minimum requirements for a restricted license as prescribed by law in the state of Wyoming and works under the direct supervision of a licensed practitioner and shall also be used to describe those practicing in other areas of certification or licensure.
- C. Additional terms of description may be adopted by the Society to define areas of certification or licensure.

Section 6. Policies and Procedures Manual

Policies and procedures of the Society are designed to further explain the intent of these bylaws and shall be contained in the Policies and Procedures Manual of the Wyoming Society of Radiologic Technologists. All documentation in said manual, approved by the Board of Directors shall be recognized as official policies and procedures of the Society and are enforceable as such. In cases of conflict between said manual and these bylaws, these bylaws shall prevail.

ARTICLE III Membership

Section 1. Eligibility

Membership in this Society shall be open to those persons associated with the practice, education or administration of therapeutic radiation and medical imaging disciplines and specialties.

Section 2. Categories of Members

The membership of this Affiliate Society shall consist of voting and non-voting members as follows:

- A. Active RT Members: are those who are registered by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) or its equivalent or hold an unrestricted license under state statutes. They shall have all rights, privileges and obligations of membership including the right to hold office, debate, vote, and to serve as a delegate in the ASRT House of Delegates.
- B. Inactive RT Members: are those who are no longer actively engaged in the field of radiologic technology and have applied for inactive status. They shall have all the privileges and obligations of Active RT Members except the right to vote and hold office.
- C. Active Non-RT Members: (restricted licensee): are those who do not qualify as registered radiologic technologists by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists or its equivalent but do hold a restricted license under Wyoming state statutes. They shall have the right to vote and chair a committee.
- D. Student Members: are those who are enrolled in an educational program accredited by any certifying body that is recognized by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists. Eligibility for obtaining student membership shall terminate upon receiving RT status or upon discontinuation of training. The membership of a graduate student receiving RT status will grandfather him or her as an Active RT Member until the next Annual Conference. Student members shall have the right to vote, to chair a committee and to hold the office of secretary or treasurer.

- E. Life Members: are those Active RT Members who have rendered exceptional service to the Society, have been a member of the Society a minimum 15 years and have held office or chaired a committee in the Society. They shall pay no dues, shall receive the Society Newsletter and shall have all the obligations and privileges of Active RT Members.
- F. Honorary Members: are those who, because of the interest they have evidenced in the activities and aims of this Society, the Society wishes to honor. Honorary members shall pay no dues, shall receive the Society Newsletter, and shall have all the privileges and obligations of Active RT Members except the right to vote, to chair a committee or to hold office.
- G. Associate Members: are those who are employed in or are interested in promoting the purposes and functions of this Society, but who are not eligible for active, inactive, non RT, or student membership. They shall have all the privileges and obligations of Active RT Members except the right to vote, to chair a committee or to hold office.
- H. Membership Gift to Graduating Students: The Board of the WSRT will gift students graduating from a Wyoming school of radiography the opportunity for a one year free active membership. This will be available to students that are graduating with an Associate of Science or an Associate of Applied Science as Radiologic Technologists. This will not be available for those receiving certifications for additional registries.
The graduating students will be presented with the information prior to graduation and will be responsible for completing the WSRT Membership Application either using the hardcopy version and returning the application to the secretary of the WSRT or completing the online application. All of the rules regarding the application process for membership will apply with the exception of the membership fee. At the end of the one year period, the technologist will be due for membership renewal at the regular membership price.
The gifts will be presented by the President of the WSRT or their designee.

Section 3. Resignation

Any member shall have the privilege of resigning by written communication to the Board of Directors, provided all dues and other indebtedness to the Society have been satisfied.

Section 4. Dues

- A. Society dues of all categories of membership are adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members eligible to vote during the Annual Conference.
- B. Any intent by a member of the Society to change the dues structure shall be communicated in writing to all members by the first business day of August.
- C. Members may pay their membership dues at any time during the year. This, in turn, will become the said member's renewal date.
- D. Dues shall be paid within sixty (60) days following their renewal date, however the Society's year commences on September 30th and all fees are due and payable to the Society by September 15.
- E. The name of any member in arrears after their renewal date or September 30th, which ever comes first, shall be deleted from the membership rolls until payment is received.
- F. In the event of a member's resignation or expulsion from the Society, dues are not refundable.

Section 5. Suspension and Expulsion

Any member may be suspended or terminated for cause. Sufficient cause for suspension or termination of membership shall be a violation of the bylaws or any lawful rule or practice duly adopted by the Society, or any other conduct prejudicial to the interests of the Society.

- A. If the judgment of the Board finds that the charges are sufficient; the member charged shall be notified in writing of the charges.

- B. A statement of these charges shall be sent by certified or registered mail to the last recorded address of the member at least twenty (20) days before final action is taken.
- C. The statement shall be accompanied by a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Board of Directors at which the charges shall be considered.
- D. The individual shall have the opportunity to appear in person and be represented by counsel to present any defense to such charges before action is taken.
- E. Suspension or expulsion shall be by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire membership of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Reinstatement

A member who has resigned or whose membership has been deleted from the Society for other reasons may be reinstated only after filing a new application and paying the fees as a new member.
