

Wyoming Society of Radiologic Technologists

Bylaws

ARTICLE I Name and Affiliation

The name of the organization shall be the Wyoming Society of Radiologic Technologists, hereinafter referred to as the WSRT, which is an affiliate of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists (ASRT).

ARTICLE II Organization

Section 1. Purpose

The purpose of the WSRT shall be to advance the professions of medical radiation therapies and imaging specialties, to assist in establishing and maintaining high standards of education, continuing education, and to enhance the quality of patient care.

Section 2. Mission Statement

The Wyoming Society of Radiologic Technologists exists as the professional organization of radiologic technologists in the state of Wyoming. We strive to elevate the status of our profession by providing educational opportunities for our members as well as non-members, advocacy for our membership as well as our profession, and promotion of quality in the science and practice of radiologic technology.

Section 3. Policy

- A. The WSRT is committed to equal opportunity and nondiscrimination in all programs and activities. No one will be denied opportunities or benefits on the basis of age, sex, color, race, creed, national origin, religious persuasion, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, military status, political belief or disability.
- B. The name of the WSRT or any member of its Board of Directors, in their official capacities, shall not be used in connection with a commercial company for other than the regular functions of the WSRT.

Section 4. Functions

- A. To provide a forum to transact WSRT business.
- B. To disseminate information pertinent to professional growth.
- C. To promote high standards of education.
- D. To encourage scientific research.
- E. To encourage quality patient care.
- F. To establish and promote policies relevant to the profession.
- G. To establish membership eligibility and define membership categories.
- H. To cooperate with external organizations or agencies whose policies are not in conflict with those of the WSRT, as may be necessary to maintain continued progress and growth of the WSRT.
- I. To facilitate a forum for communication between other healthcare professional agencies.

Section 5. Definitions

- A. “Radiologic Technologist” shall be the term used to define an individual who is certified and registered by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) or an equivalent agency (e.g. American Registry of Diagnostic Medical Sonographers (ARDMS), Nuclear Medicine Technologist Certification Board (NMTCB)) as a Radiographer, Nuclear Medicine Technologist, Radiation Therapist, Sonographer and those practicing in other specialty areas such as Computed Tomography, Cardiac Interventional and Vascular Interventional, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Mammography, Quality Management, etc. who have met minimum requirements for a general license as prescribed by law in the state of Wyoming.
- B. “Radiologic Technician” shall mean a person who has or has not received formal training in the application of ionizing radiation, but who has met minimum requirements for a restricted license as prescribed by law in the state of Wyoming and works under the direct supervision of a licensed practitioner and shall also be used to describe those practicing in other areas of certification or licensure.
- C. Additional terms of description may be adopted by the WSRT to define areas of certification or licensure.

Section 6. Policies & Procedures Manual

Policies and procedures of the WSRT are designed to further explain the intent of these Bylaws and shall be contained in the Policies & Procedures manual of the Wyoming Society of Radiologic Technologists. All documentation in said manual approved by the Board of Directors shall be recognized as official policies and procedures of the WSRT and are enforceable as such. In cases of conflict between said manual and these Bylaws, these Bylaws shall prevail.

ARTICLE III Membership

Section 1. Eligibility

Membership in this WSRT shall be open to those associated with the practice, education or administration of therapeutic radiation and medical imaging disciplines and specialties.

Section 2. Categories of Members

The membership of this Affiliate Society shall consist of voting and non-voting members as follows:

- A. Active RT Members: are those who are registered by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) or its equivalent or hold an unrestricted license under state statutes. They shall have all rights, privileges and obligations of membership including the right to hold office, debate, vote, and to serve as a delegate in the ASRT House of Delegates.
- B. Inactive RT Members: are those who are no longer actively engaged in the field of radiologic technology and have applied for inactive status. They shall have all the privileges and obligations of Active RT Members except the right to vote and hold office.
- C. Active Non-RT Members (restricted licensee): are those who do not qualify as registered radiologic technologists by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists or its equivalent but do hold a restricted license under Wyoming state statutes. They shall have the right to vote and chair a committee.
- D. Student Members: are those who are enrolled in an educational program accredited by any certifying body that is recognized by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists. Eligibility for obtaining student membership shall terminate upon receiving RT status or upon discontinuation of training. The membership of a graduate student receiving RT status will grandfather him or her as an Active RT Member until the next Annual Conference. Student members shall have the right to vote, to chair a committee and to hold the office of secretary or treasurer.

- E. Life Members: are those Active RT Members who have rendered exceptional service to the WSRT, have been a member of the WSRT a minimum 15 years and have held office or chaired a committee in the WSRT. They shall pay no dues, shall receive the WSRT Newsletter and shall have all the obligations and privileges of Active RT Members.
- F. Retired Members: are those who meet the following qualifications:
 - 1. have requested this status from the ASRT and submit one of the following documents to the ASRT:
 - a. evidence of retirement status from a certification agency recognized by the ASRT or
 - b. a certificate of recognition from a certification agency recognized by the ASRT.

They shall have all rights, privileges and obligations of Active RT Members except to hold office or serve as a delegate.

- G. Honorary Members: are those who, because of the interest they have evidenced in the activities and aims of this Society, the WSRT wishes to honor. Honorary members shall pay no dues, shall receive the WSRT Newsletter, and shall have all the privileges and obligations of Active RT Members except the right to vote, to chair a committee or to hold office.
- H. Associate Members: are those who are employed in or are interested in promoting the purposes and functions of this WSRT, but who are not eligible for active, inactive, non RT, or student membership. They shall have all the privileges and obligations of Active RT Members except the right to vote, to chair a committee or to hold office.
- I. Graduate Bridge Members: are those who meet the following qualifications:
 - 1. have graduated from an accredited program or a program in an accredited institution accepted by certification agencies recognized by the ASRT in their initial medical imaging or radiation therapy program within the past 24 months; or
 - 2. are registered or certified in a primary modality by certification agencies recognized by the WSRT and are within 24 months of their initial certification.

They shall have all rights, privileges and obligations of Active RT Members. All the rules regarding the application process for membership will apply with the exception of the membership fee. At the end of the one year period, the technologist will be due for membership renewal at the regular membership price.

Section 3. Resignation

Any member shall have the privilege of resigning by written communication to the Board of Directors, provided all dues and other indebtedness to the WSRT have been satisfied.

Section 4. Dues

- A. WSRT dues of all categories of membership are adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members eligible to vote during the Annual Conference.
- B. Any intent by a member of the WSRT to change the dues structure shall be communicated in writing to all members by the first business day of August.
- C. Members may pay their membership dues at any time during the year. This, in turn, will become the said member's renewal date.
- D. Dues shall be paid within sixty (60) days following their renewal date, however the WSRT's year commences on September 30th and all fees are due and payable to the WSRT by September 15.
- E. The name of any member in arrears after their renewal date or September 30th, whichever comes first, shall be deleted from the membership roster until payment is received.
- F. In the event of a member's resignation or expulsion from the WSRT, dues are not refundable.

Section 5. Member Suspension and Expulsion

Any member may be suspended or terminated for cause. Sufficient cause for suspension or termination of membership shall be a violation of the Bylaws or any lawful rule or practice duly adopted by the WSRT, or any other conduct prejudicial to the interests of the WSRT.

- A. If the judgment of the Board finds that the charges are sufficient; the member charged shall be notified in writing of the charges.
- B. A statement of these charges shall be sent by certified or registered mail to the last recorded address of the member at least twenty (20) days before final action is taken.
- C. The statement shall be accompanied by a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Board of Directors at which the charges shall be considered.
- D. The individual shall have the opportunity to appear in person and be represented by counsel to present any defense to such charges before action is taken.
- E. Suspension or expulsion shall be by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire membership of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Reinstatement

A member who has resigned or whose membership has been revoked by the WSRT for other reasons may be reinstated only after filing a new application and paying the fees as a new member.

Section 6. Board of Directors

A district Board of Directors may be established by a vote of the district membership. Its composition and duties shall be consistent with, but not necessarily identical to those specified in Article V of these Bylaws.

Section 7. Committees

The District President may appoint committees as are necessary to promote the activities of the district.

Section 8. Meetings/Quorum

District organizations shall hold a minimum of four (4) meetings, but preferably eight (8) meetings each year. Twenty percent (20%) of the voting membership that is present, including two (2) officers shall constitute a quorum.

Section 9. Indemnification

The WSRT shall not be responsible for any debts or utterance made by any District organization.

ARTICLE X Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, shall govern the WSRT in all cases in which they are applicable and in which they are consistent with the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI Amendments

Amendments to these Bylaws may be made by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voting membership at the Annual Conference Business Meeting of the WSRT. Notice of such proposed amendments must be sent by August 1 to all voting members. Amendments shall be effective at the conclusion of the Annual Conference.

ARTICLE XII Emergency Bylaws

This Article XII shall become operative upon majority vote of the Board of Directors as a result of the existence of an emergency condition. An "emergency condition" is defined as an act of God, war, government regulation or advisory (including travel advisory warnings), travel restrictions by employers due to laws, civil disruption or disturbance, terrorism or threats of terrorism as substantiated by governmental warnings or advisory notices, environmental or other disaster, determinations of outbreak of disease by either the World Health Organization or the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (or other recognized entities), epidemics, pandemics, public health risks, quarantine, or other life threatening communicable disease, or threat thereof, or any other comparable conditions, or the imposition of a financial hardship on the WSRT which materially impairs, or makes it inadvisable, illegal, impracticable or impossible, in part or in full, WSRT's ability to fulfill its obligations hereunder.

Section 1. Meetings

Regular meetings of the WSRT and any related meetings may be suspended, canceled or the proceedings modified by the Board of Directors during an emergency condition. Meetings that are not suspended or canceled during an emergency condition, may at the discretion of the Board of Directors, be held with a statement of the business to be transacted. No business other than that specified shall be transacted.

Section 2. Motions

At the discretion of the Board of Directors, motions that were to be considered at a meeting being impacted by these emergency Bylaws may be held for consideration until the next Annual Conference and Business Meeting occurring after the emergency condition has ended.

Section 3. Quorum

If a meeting of the WSRT is not suspended or canceled, a quorum shall consist of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the voting members in attendance and includes not less than two (2) officers.

Section 4. Elections & Seating of any Appointed or Elected Individual

Notwithstanding any other Bylaw provision regarding the length of a term, when a term is to begin or end, the Board of Directors may, by majority vote, exercise discretion and delay the beginning of a term or extend an existing term for the purposes of functioning in the best interests of the WSRT during any emergency event and for a reasonable time period thereafter.

Section 5. Officers

All officers in office immediately prior to commencement of the emergency condition shall remain in their respective offices until their successors are able to be installed.

Section 6. Authority

The primary duty of the Board of Directors during an emergency condition shall be the continued function of the WSRT. The Board of Directors may adopt such other emergency Bylaws as may be necessary in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors to accomplish the foregoing.

Section 7. Bylaws Applicability and Duration

To the extent not inconsistent with any emergency bylaw, all other WSRT bylaw provisions shall remain in effect during the emergency condition. Upon the end of the emergency condition, as determined by the Board of Directors applying a reasonable person standard considering factors including, but not limited to, government warnings or restrictions, member opinion, travel restrictions, the emergency Bylaws shall cease to be operative.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, emergency Bylaws shall not supersede the provisions of Federal or State laws with respect to amending the articles of incorporation or the regular Bylaws of the corporation, adopting a plan of merger or consolidation with another corporation or corporations, authorizing the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, or authorizing the dissolution of the corporation; and the regular Bylaws of the corporation and the articles of incorporation shall continue in full force and effect for such purposes.

ARTICLE XIII
Indemnification

Every officer, director, employee, or delegate of the WSRT shall be indemnified by the WSRT against all expenses and liabilities, including attorney's fees, in connection with any threatened, pending or completed proceeding in which the above named individual is involved by reason of the above named individual being or having been an officer, director, employee, or delegate to the WSRT, including, but not limited to, the interpretation and application of these Bylaws, if the above named individual acted in good faith, within the scope of the above-named individual's authority and in a manner reasonably to be not opposed to the best interest of the WSRT. In no event shall indemnification be paid to or on behalf of any above-named individual going beyond or acting beyond the powers granted by authority of this organization or bylaw. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to, and not exclusive of, all other rights to which such officer, director, employee or delegate may be entitled.

ARTICLE XIV
Dissolution

In the event of dissolution or final liquidation of the WSRT, all of its assets, after payment of its obligations shall have been made or provided for, shall be distributed to the ASRT Education and Research Foundation or among such corporations, foundations, or other organizations organized and operated exclusively for scientific and educational purposes, consistent with those of the WSRT, as designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XV
Legalities of Bylaws

All provisions of these Bylaws shall apply except when in conflict with Federal or State laws respecting non-profit corporations.

Approved: September 21, 2024
